NEW YORK—The Federal Reserve Board today announced that it will continue to maintain its policy of keeping the money supply growth rate at 3 percent a year. The board said it expects the economy to continue to grow at a moderate pace and that inflation remains under control. It also noted that the unemployment rate has declined to 5.6 percent, which is below the long-run average of 6 percent. Old Age

Old age is unaccounted enough, even if one is surrounded with the amenities that wealth will secure.

It is possible to make provision against poverty and dependent old age, even if one can't afford old age itself. Are you doing that? Have you an account at the bank? Are you preparing for the days when your earning powers will decrease or possibly cease altogether? That's something for every man and woman to think about.
